QLIKVIEW ARCHITECT / SR. DEVELOPER

Career Overview

- Senior Software Developer with 17+ years in analysis, design, development, testing and implementation of various business applications
- Experienced in all stages of the development life cycle
- Well-versed in Qlikview and PowerBuilder with a strong background in management, leadership and mentoring
- Highly dependable and motivated software developer successful at troubleshooting and debugging
- Outstanding ability to translate business requirements into effective business solutions
- Over 6+ years of professional experience with Qlikview Server and Publisher maintenance - Creating scheduled jobs for QVD extracts and report reloads
- Worked as a Qlikview Technical Consultant on several business applications
- Experience in complete project life cycle including documentation, analysis, development and testing
- History of working in close association with business owners, serving as the single point of contact for numerous major implementation projects

Skills and Accomplishments

- Strong experience with Qlikview application design, development and scripting
- Advanced knowledge of the Initial Startup Installation and administration of the Qlikview Server
- Formidable knowledge of relational databases and the Sybase SQL
- Exceptional organizational, analytical and time management skills
- Excellent ability to translate client requirements into effective solutions
- Keen ability to interact with end users and in turn, a clear technical requirements
- Presented the Board of Directors Achievement Award for contributions in developing â€œThe Member Dashboard', a business discovery reporting tool designed for the member owners
- Promoted to Business Intelligence Team Lead in 5 months

Work Experience

Qlikview Architect / Sr. Developer
April 2015 to Current Electronic Arts - Stockholm , ME

- Exceptional organizational, analytical and time management skills
- Excellent ability to translate client requirements into effective solutions
- Assisted the Enterprise Infrastructure Group in standing up the Qlikview servers for development, test, stage and production
- Installed and configured the Qlikview Development Framework (QDF), streamlining the integration of the Qlikview applications from development through production
- Worked with the cross functional teams to design the Enterprise Data Warehouse with respect to Qlikview
- Tasked with Qlikview Project encompassing the Finance Department Sales, Revenue, Cost and Gross Margins
- Analyzed the database and provided detailed information on Operations and Future Forecasts
- Designed several dashboards combining financial data with SalesForce.com. Extracted data using the Qlikview/Salesforce connector, seamlessly integrating the Salesforce data schema
- Conducted JAD (Joint Application Development) sessions with business owners to gather requirements for design and development of the dashboard
- Mentored staff new to Qlikview via one-on-one discussions, group training and code reviews
- Considered the Qlikview Expert for the Business Development Team

Business Intelligence Technology Team Lead
June 2002 to March 2016 National Rural Utilities Cooperative Finance Corporation - City , STATE

- 15 yrs.' development experience using PowerBuilder created, maintained and enhanced five mission critical PowerBuilder applications for a user base of 250+
- Evaluated and tested various BI tools; introduced Qlikview technology as business discovery and business intelligence platform in the fall of 2008
- Designed, developed, implemented and administered six departmental dashboards displaying financial reports, loan and investment profiles, trends, contact information and Key Performance Indicator (KPI)
- Demonstrated strong skills in problem solving, troubleshooting, and providing customer support
- Intermediate knowledge of relational database
- 10 years' experience with Sybase ASE
- Familiar with all stages of the Software Development Life Cycle (SDLC)
- Exceptional organizational, analytical, and time management, with exposure to project management
- Proficient at developing Qlikview Load Scripts for distribution across multiple data sources
- Designed and developed a Corporate Ad Hoc Query Tool allowing users to select from 1,100 fields to view across 13 databases, easily exported into Excel. Successfully freed IT resources by reducing data requests by 80% thru the use of self-servicing customizable queries on demand
- Built Financial Dashboard dedicated to Members included predefined reports that were easily exported into PowerPoint saving the Member's time preparing their Board presentations.

- Designed several financial and investment tools to support numerous financial portfolios

Development Manager
December 1995 to May 2002 WorldCom Formally MCIWorldCom, UUNET - City , STATE

- Managed a team of 25 developers, 5 analysts, and a development DBA, tasked with developing and maintaining systems that handled nearly 60% of the internet backbone worldwide
- Strong skills in problem solving, troubleshooting, and providing customer support
- Exceptional organizational, analytical, time management skills
- Managed and developed a Customer Provisioning System responsible for the end-to-end provisioning of large capacity sonnet rings and dedicated Internet access points
- Created monitoring and troubleshooting tools used in the Network Operation Center (NOC) to help handle outages throughout the Internet backbone systems
- Maintained and modified 7 mission critical PowerBuilder applications. Troubleshooting, corrected errors, adapted new hardware to improve performance and versioning
- While managing a predominately JAVA development effort, designed and deployed several new applications using client server technologies found in PowerBuilder
- Analyzed information to determine, recommend, and plan installation of new systems or modifications to existing systems
- Planned, organized, and executed logistics support activities, maintenance planning, repair analysis, and testing recommendations
- Guidance, and technical leadership to entry level and Junior developers
- Determined staffing requirements, interviewed, hired and trained new employees, oversaw employee personal processes and provided performance evaluations
- Managed subcontractor activities, reviewed proposals, worked with network engineers develop performance specifications, and serve as liaison between subcontractors and organization

Skills

Skills Experience Â

Qlikview Designer, Developer, Scripting Senior

Qlikview Administrator / Publisher Senior

PowerBuilder Developer Intermediate

MSOffice Intermediate